Foundation Brings New Christmas Classic to Edgewood Club Stage

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. And he – and his understudy – will be visiting Edgewood in a production of “Winter Solstice,” a new holiday classic that is based on the myths of the Gift Bearer of the Winter Solstice. This heartwarming play was called “charming and witty” by Pittsburgh Post-Gazette drama critic Chris Rawson.

Sponsored by the Edgewood Foundation, the play is produced by mimeradio.org, a company that produces live shows and internet audio theater. The play will be directed by lance-eric skapura, who directed its previous two productions.

Show dates are December 2, 3, 9 and 10 at 8 p.m., with a special preview as part of Light Up Night on Thursday, December 1 (see page 5). All performances will be held at the Edgewood Club.

Written by Walnut Street resident Marjorie Stewart, the play features actors well known to Pittsburgh theatergoers, including Brian Bessor, Heather McNeish, James Shobert and Nicole O'Malley. Edgewood theater buffs may also recognize the talents of Lynn Franks, who was seen in Vanities, which we believe was the final production of the Edgewood Players, produced at the Edgewood Club in 1987.

The play asks the age-old question, Who is Santa Claus? Well, Virginia, this bittersweet comedy contends that it's Mr. von Kinder, the old high school driving teacher. And soon it will be Alexandra Milanovich, hard-boiled girl reporter. And it used to be La Befana, or the Christ Kindle, or Santa Lucia, or St. Nicholas, or...or...or...

Portions of the script are available to be previewed on the Foundation website at www.edgewoodfoundation.org.

The show will feature live original music by composer/performer Stephen Vesolich, and a light appetizer and dessert buffet.

Seating is informal at round tables, first-come, first served. Directions and parking advice for your out-of-town friends are available at www.edgewoodfoundation.org.

Tickets are $18 for general admission, $15 for seniors, $12 for students, and $12 each for groups of 10 or more. They are available through ProArts Tickets at (412) 394-3353 or proartstickets.org.

If you only see one show this holiday season, make it “Winter Solstice.”

Edgewood to Convert to Allegheny County Dispatching Jan. 1

Edgewood Borough Council recently voted to transition its dispatching services to the Allegheny County 911 Center beginning January 1, 2006. If you have been keeping track of recent events involving the county's 911 service and the regional centers, this action was not entirely unexpected.

Edgewood has had a unique set-up with its dispatching services and that department's relationship with the Edgewood Volunteer Fire Department. Currently, if you dial 911, that call goes to the Eastern Regional Center in Monroeville. They then ring the call down to Edgewood where we have our own dispatch department. This process, while seamless, can delay an operator being on the phone by several seconds. As most residents learn, Edgewood does have its own emergency line that residents can dial and those do come directly to us.

To add to this already confusing set-up if a resident would dial Edgewood's emergency line and need an ambulance, that call gets sent to the Monroeville center who is responsible for all ambulance dispatch.

Our dispatchers are also responsible for taking fire trucks to any fire scene. When this happens, all calls are forwarded to the Monroeville 911 center. If during this time you were to call our emergency number, you would actually be talking to a dispatcher from Monroeville.

All the area's regional call centers will be closed as of December 31, 2005. For Edgewood that means that we would have no one to transfer our calls to during a fire call. It also means that our borough would have no one dispatching ambulance service. Edgewood Borough Council was left with little choice but to agree to convert dispatching to the county beginning in January.

Internally we have been planning for this since March. We believe that Edgewood residents will see no reduction in service. There will be changes in the way that we do some things. Currently the plan is to keep what is our dispatch department, but rework their responsibilities. This new department will continue to assist the police department and take the fire truck out when a fire call comes in. They also will deal with payment of parking tickets, handling overnight call-ins, and many other duties.

This new department will be staffed from 7:30 a.m. - 11:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. We will have no issues with getting fire trucks to the scenes during the overnight hours and on the weekends. The Edgewood Fire Chief has already begun implementing call sheets where neighboring departments are helping our town with fire coverage. We have also seen the size of our volunteer company grow by about 25% just this year. There will be other changes the borough will have to implement during these overnight and weekend hours, including paying tickets and overnight call-ins. Please refer to our web-site in the coming weeks for specifics, as well as area newspapers. Please rest assured that there is no higher priority for us than the safety of our residents.

Scouting

Court of Honor

Congratulations to all the Scouts who were recognized at the Troop Court of Honor. Frank LeDonne advanced to the rank of Life Scout and Andrew Held received his First Class rank. James May, Vincent LeDonne and Rick Thompson each earned their Tenderfoot rank. A total of 56 merit badges were presented to the scouts for their accomplishments from summer camp, advancement camp and other merit badge programs. We also presented Historical Trails medals to those scouts and leaders who participated in the trip to Gettysburg National Park. In addition to the presenting the Honor Troop and Patrol Awards, ten of the twelve scouts who attended summer camp received the Honor Camper Award.

Election Results

The troop recently held elections for new youth troop leaders. Christopher Harding was elected as the Senior Patrol Leader. The Senior Patrol Leader is responsible for the troop meeting, activities and operation of the troop. One of Christopher's first duties was to appoint the to the following boys to their respective position: Assistant Senior Patrol Leader - Danny Curry, Troop Guide - Anton Bubolz, Quartermaster - Andy Huse, Scribe - Andrew Held. Fank LeDonne was as elected as the patrol leader of the Scorpion Patrol. Frank appointed Alex Huse as his assistant. These leaders participated in Troop Leader Training on Saturday, October 15 at Camp Guyasuta. The scouts learned about the duties of their positions and began planning for upcoming events and meetings.

Fund Raising

We would like to thank to the community for supporting our two recent fundraisers. The popcorn sale was a success, with the troop earning much needed funds for equipment, activities and summer camp. The popcorn will be delivered to the troop on November 12 and the Scouts will be delivering it the following week. We also appreciate those who attended our first spaghetti dinner and look forward to meeting more of the community at our next dinner.

Christmas Tree Sale

The tree sale will begin on Sunday, November 27. This Christmas tree sale is a long tradition in the Edgewood community and is the primary fundraiser for the scouts. Hours will be Thursday and Friday, 5 - 9 p.m.; Saturday, 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; and Sunday, 1 p.m. - 9 p.m. The sale will be at the Koenig Field basketball court. We will have a variety of trees, including Blue Spruce, Scotch Pine and Douglas Fir.

An Edgewood Tradition

We here at Troop 23 are very proud of the great and long tradition of scouting in Edgewood. The troop was originally chartered in 1912 and is the oldest troop in southwestern Pennsylvania. We are currently planning for our upcoming anniversary and are interested in collecting items of historical significance to the troop. If you have news articles, uniforms, equipment, patches, or other historical item that would help us make this an exciting event feel free drop it off at one of our troop meetings or contact of the troop leaders for pick up.

Meetings

The troop meets every Monday at the First Presbyterian Church of Edgewood at 7:30 p.m. All boys ages 11-18 are invited to stop by and visit a meeting. For more information about the troop, please contact the Scoutmaster, Charles Huse, at (412) 849-3232.

The lower part of the building served as locker rooms for the high school football teams when games were held at Koenig Field. The Field House is definitely one of our borough's gems.

The program will display artifacts and memorabilia the society has in its files. Members of the board will give a narration of the items on display. All are invited. Refreshments will be served.

Edgewood Foundation

Progressive Dinner

The annual progressive dinner is a great chance to meet interesting people and raise money to help Edgewood. All proceeds benefit the Edgewood Foundation, which provides funds for many community programs, including beautification of Edgewood, the Edgewood Symphony Orchestra, and the annual town meeting.

Planning starts early for this mid-winter tradition, so mark your calendars for Saturday, February 11, and get those RSVP forms (on this page) in early.

Advance planning is the key to this event, so the earlier you return your RSVP, the more likely you are to get your first choice of activity – either hosting a course or providing food or beverage.

Once again, there will be a recipe contest for both chicken and vegetarian entrees. The recipe must be an elegant one-dish, easily-reheatable entrée. Please include your recipe with your RSVP. Winners receive dinner for two at this year's event.

The evening promises good food, good fun, and good people coming together for a great fundraiser.

Board Member Wanted

The Foundation is still in search of a community volunteer. If you want to make a difference in your neighborhood, please call Vaughn Busch at (412) 242-5345, or by e-mail at vaughn\_busch@yahoo.com. You may also check out our website at www.edgewoodfoundation.org to review some of the events that we regularly sponsor in the borough.

Light Up Night

Santa will arrive at Memorial Park by fire truck to light the borough Christmas tree on Light Up Night, to be held on Thursday, December 1.

In addition to the traditional tree lighting and cookies, the evening will include a new element. There will be a special preview performance of "Winter Solstice" as the entertainment. The show will actually be an open dress rehearsal which will let the audience get a glimpse behind the scenes, meeting the director, producers, designers and actors as they work through the final details and put the finishing touches on this new holiday classic.

"Winter Solstice" is appropriate for theater-going children of all ages. The Foundation understands that it is a school night and young children have had an exciting evening meeting Santa and enjoying the festivities, so don't feel uncomfortable about leaving the preview when you and the kids need to be nestled all snug in your beds. There will be four full performances that you can return for if you like what you see.

As usual, the entire Light-Up Night is free and open to the whole Edgewood community.

Please call Donna Hanson at (412) 731-2460 if you would like to start your holiday season by volunteering to help on Light Up Night.

The Foundation would like to thank Donna Hanson for coordinating Light Up Night and Lori Maxwell of Hidden Talents for her design and promotion work for the production of "Winter Solstice."

Nine Mile Run Group Seeks Input

The Nine Mile Run Watershed Association will sponsor a family friendly two-day public visioning workshop to help their team of engineers, landscape architects, and artists redesign the Braddock Avenue entrance to Frick Park. The goal is to transform dilapidated parking lots, chain link fencing, and a decaying outfall culvert into a welcoming entrance to Frick Park and the Center for Creative Play.

The Regent Square Gateway Project will not just be an aesthetically pleasing green space. It will incorporate sustainable storm water management and beautiful landscaping to clean and manage excess rain and snow melt, a problem that currently wreaks havoc on Nine Mile Run by eroding stream banks and flooding it with pollutants.

The workshop will have two parts: a presentation on Friday, December 2 from 6 - 8 p.m. (including dinner); and an interactive design event on Saturday, December 3 from 8:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m. (breakfast and snacks included). Both events will be held at the Center for Creative Play at 1400 South Braddock Avenue.

For more information, visit www.ninemilerun.org. Please pre-register by e-mail at info@ninemilerun.org.

Stop the press!

First and foremost, the photo seen in last month's newsletter is not the ladder truck. That is engine 137. There are no plans of retiring the engine for a long time coming. As the deadline approaches for this article I always wonder, what do I say. Marjorie - thank you for being the inspiration behind this article entitled "Meet Your Fire Trucks."

Engine 137 (editor's note - see October issue for photo. And oops, sorry, Dave!) is a 2000 Pierce Dash. The engine carries 1000' feet of five-inch hose which is used to bring water from the hydrant into the pump. The pump has a capacity of putting out 2000 gallons per minute. For fighting fires we use 1 1/2" hand lines. There are two 150' section pre-connected to the pump. There is an additional 400' that is carried as back up.

The engine also has a 500-gallon water tank which is used for smaller fires. In addition to fire suppression, this engine was designed to carry a compliment of rescue equipment. We carry the Jaws of Life, cutters, rams (not the furry kind), saws alls, air chisel, air shores, rope, and wood blocks for stabilization. There are fans to blow smoke out or cool fire fighters down. Large and small hand tools range from axes down to screwdrivers. There are three types of meters to read gasses as well as a wand to detect if electrical lines still have power in them.

So now you know what goes on behind closed doors. Squad 137 is a 1999 Ford Explorer and due to its size is generally used for transporting fire fighters and carrying minor equipment. It also does a fine job to fine job pulling the hay wagon. Stay tuned for next year's update on "Meet Your Fire Trucks."

New Additions to the Department

The EVFD welcomes Lou, Annette, and Cory Boccio, Rob and Judy Misel, Debbie Andrews, Melanie Rickard, Melissa Ratajeski, and Joann Halle as class 3 firefighters. A class 3 firefighter is support personal to the department to assist in non-fire fighting activities.

Police Report

Part-time Officer Hired

The Edgewood Police Department would like to welcome part-time officer Andrew Pearl, to the borough. Pearl has experience as an officer, and can now use his experience and abilities to help the citizens of Edgewood.

New Speed Limit

The speed limit the entire length of Maple Avenue has recently been reduced from 25 miles per hour to 15 miles per hour. In order to increase public awareness of the reduced speed limit, Edgewood Police Department has obtained the use of a speed trailer which was placed on Maple Avenue in October. The speed trailer has the 15 mile per hour speed limit posted above it, and displays the speed of the passing cars. Your speed is displayed in red if you are exceeding the limit. Officers will be giving warnings to violators for a short period, then will begin issuing traffic citations. Please drive safely and obey the posted speed limits.

Police Tip of the Month

Make sure that you lock your vehicle doors anytime you leave the vehicle unattended. Never leave valuables such as cash, wallets, or cellular phones inside the vehicle, especially where they can be seen by others. This area has experienced several thefts of items taken from inside vehicles. If you notice anything suspicious, please report it to the Police Department promptly.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Officer Libell who successfully completed his one year probationary period as a full-time police officer. Officer Libell completed his probation in September. He was given a plaque from the borough to commemorate the occasion.

The borough would also like to congratulate part-time police officer Troy Garrett who resigned from the borough in October for a full-time position with the Allegheny County Sheriff's Department. Officer Garrett was employed with Edgewood for about four years. We would like to thank Officer Garrett for his dedication to the borough throughout his employment, and wish him best of luck in his new position.

October Police Statistics

The Edgewood Police Department responded to and handled 1,815 calls for service in October. There were 573 incidents reported, 222 complaints received and one accident investigated, which resulted in personal injury.
