School's Out: Class of 2009 Honored at Foundation Brunch

The Edgewood Foundation held its twenty-third annual Senior Recognition Brunch on May 10. The brunch honored Edgewood's graduating seniors while keeping the memory of Bill Limpert, who started the tradition in 1986, alive. On a lovely afternoon, over 75 people came to the Edgewood Club to honor the graduates.

Edgewood resident Laura Horner was the featured guest. Ms. Horner has volunteered with the Edgewood Club, the Edgewood Foundation, and the Recreation Department. Laura is a recipient of the Edgewood Foundation's Limpert Award. She has spent her career in marketing communications and public relations. Ms. Horner has also written and edited several books related to the arts, a subject that is dear to her.

There was a special presentation of photographs accompanied by "Time of Our Lives" a song about growing up in Edgewood, with lyrics by Marty and Mary Reidell. The vocals were provided by graduating senior Patrick Cooksey.

Presentation of the Mel Douglass scholarships occurred during the brunch. Jenna Gleason, Chris Harding, Zachary Good, Reese McArdle, and Nicholas Williams received one time scholarships of $500. This year's Edgewood Borough Junior Councilperson, Anne Hazlett, was awarded a $1000 scholarship each year for four years.

Your Library is in Trouble!

C.C. Mellor Memorial Library needs your help. Due to the bleak economy, the PA State Senate has proposed a 50% cut in the Subsidy to Public Libraries resulting in devastating cuts to library services provided to this community. Please write your legislators and the governor to let them know that you value your library. If you believe in libraries, speak out and tell your story! One personal reflection on why C.C. Mellor is important is worth more than hundreds of official library statistics.

What to include in your correspondence:

- Thank your legislator for his past support of public libraries.
- Ask him to help develop a budget that includes state funding for libraries equal to this year's (FY 2008-2009) funding.

- Inform him that Pennsylvania stands to lose nearly $1 million in federal aid to libraries if the cuts proposed stand.
- Remind him that public libraries all across Pennsylvania are busier than ever, making this the worst possible time to cut the public library subsidy.
- Include your story. Tell him how you use the library and what services mean to you and your family.

Your support will make a real difference in the future of all libraries. Faxing is the best way to get a letter to elected officials. C.C. Mellor will fax your letters to our legislators at no charge.

WPSD to Provide Services to Deaf Students in Northeast PA

On May 8, Education Secretary Gerald L. Zahorchak, announced that an agreement had been reached between the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE) and the Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf (WPSD) that provides for the continuation of a school for deaf and hard-of-hearing children in northeast Pennsylvania.

"We were approached by PDE to provide educational services to these students as part of the state's commitment to serving the needs of deaf and hard-of-hearing students," said Donald E. Rhoten, WPSD Superintendent.

"WPSD will establish the Scranton School for Deaf and Hard of Hearing Children - a program of the Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf - on the Scranton State School for the Deaf campus as of July 1, 2009. We are committed to maintaining a program in Northeast Pennsylvania on a long-term basis." Details of PDE's transition plan can be found at www.pde.state.pa.us. WPSD currently provides quality educational services and a complete extracurricular program to nearly 250 deaf and hard-of-hearing children from 101 school districts and 31 counties, including Bucks, Montgomery, Lancaster, York, Lycoming and Union. WPSD operates an office in Camp Hill, PA that serves as a center for outreach and support programs for the area's deaf community and as the transportation center for residential students from central and eastern PA.

The nomination for "Best Musical" means that WHHS students performed on the stage of the Benedum Theater during the awards program on Saturday, May 23.

Woodland Hills Academy Registration Lottery Drawing

The enrollment lottery for the new Woodland Hills Academy was held in Turtle Creek on Wednesday, May 6. Parents had the opportunity to hear more about the district's new charter school, opening at the former Turtle Creek High School building this upcoming August. In addition to an extended day and year program, students at Woodland Hills Academy will wear uniforms and be challenged with rigorous academics.

Two hundred sixty students in grades K-6 were selected by a random, computer-generated lottery process. The first kindergarten name chosen for the new school was Edgewood's own Ian McDonald, the son of two members of the first graduating class of Woodland Hills High School. Ian's family is excited to be involved in this new pilot program from the Woodland Hills School District, while 5-year-old Ian is mostly very excited about getting to ride the school bus.

Summer Sports Camps

Free summer sports camps are being held for Woodland Hills students in grades 3 through 8. For camp information, see the Woodland Hills School District website, www.whsd.net or call the athletics office at (412) 244-1100, ext. 5141. Some of the sports offered include: girls' basketball, softball and volleyball; boys' baseball, basketball, and soccer; boys' and girls' tennis, track and swimming.

A summer swim camp will be held at the Woodland Hills High School pool from June 15 to June 19 for all K-8 students living in the Woodland Hills District. Space is limited, so registration is required. To obtain a registration form, download one at the WHSD website, or call the athletics office.

Nine Mile Run

Bird Walk

On Sunday, June 7 join the NMRWA as they bird the Nine Mile Run Valley, and learn about the ecological restoration efforts in the southern end of Frick park. In the past, they have been delighted to see some unusual winged visitors—come see if there are any pleasant surprises this year. Chuck Tague and Jack Solomon lead this joint outing with the Wissahickon Nature Club and the Nine Mile Run Watershed Association.

Breeding birds should be active. An Orchard Oriole nested in the valley last June, so you may see it, or its more common cousin, the Baltimore Oriole. Carolina Chickadees, Carolina Wrens, Yellow Warbler, Scarlet Tanager, and Indigo Bunting—they're all possible in the watershed on an early June morning. Keep an eye out for butterflies and dragonflies too, as well as late spring and early summer wildflowers.

Then, join the group for brunch at Kazanky's whenever they tire or the birding slows. Register by calling 412.371.8779 ext 15, or email lisa@ninemilerun.org. This event begins at 7:30 a.m. Meet at the lower Frick Park parking lot off Lancaster Avenue. A childrens' activity, lead by the Frick Environmental Center and suitable for ages 5-9, will be part of this event. Please RSVP.

Borough Notes

Community Day Plans

Everyone at the borough encourages you to attend Community Day on Saturday, August 15. Mark your calendar now... you don't want to miss Edgewood's favorite day!

Seeking Junior Councilperson

Edgewood Borough Council is currently accepting applications for Junior Councilperson for the 2009-10 school year. Eligible students must be entering the 11th or 12th grades, and be residents of Edgewood. Interested parties should send a letter of interest to the Borough Building, c/o the Junior Councilperson Program. Interviews will be conducted during July, with the selection taking place in August for early September installation. The Junior Councilperson Program in Edgewood is beginning its 4th year, and is a wonderful way for our neighborhood's young people to learn more about their community. JCP's can expect to spend 30 to 40 volunteer hours attending council meetings and special events, and council can provide assistance for students who wish to use the program as their state-required graduation project in community service.

Tax Time

The Edgewood Borough Real Estate Tax is now due at face until July 31. If you did not receive your bill, call my office ASAP. If you are still waiting for a receipt for the tax you paid at discount, I'm a little behind because of taking a week off. I'll try to get through them as quickly as I can.

I still have 2008 School Taxes that have not been paid yet. These will be turned over as delinquent around June 15. If you're not sure if you paid them (they went out in July 2008), just call my office and I can check on it for you. The 2009 Woodland Hills tax bill should be mailed out the last week of June as long as the school board passes their budget. Any questions, call my office at (412) 731-0200. If I'm not there, just leave a message and I'll call you back.

Bigger and Better Open House

The Edgewood Police Department will hold its Sixth Annual Open House on Saturday, July 25. There are so many fun-filled activities for you and your family this year that the event has expanded to a period of three hours, from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. A complimentary lunch will be available from 12:30 p.m. until 2 p.m. and will include food from the grill, a variety of side dishes, and delicious desserts. Snacks and beverages will be provided throughout the event.

Police, Fire and EMS vehicles will be on hand for viewing, along with trucks from Edgewood's Department of Public Works. The 911 van will also be there to instruct children on dialing 911 in the event of an emergency. Members of the Allegheny County Juvenile Probation Department will be on hand with helpful information.

The Pittsburgh Puppet Works will be providing entertainment this year. They are scheduled for a 2 p.m. show full of lively, fun music, mixed jokes, and mini skits. The show should prove entertaining for both kids and adults. Other attractions include a canine demonstration just prior to the Pittsburgh Puppet Works show.

There will be plenty of childrens' activities along with the traditional childrens' raffle which will include some fantastic prizes. We will be offering a gift bag for every child attending the event.

This is just a taste of events this year and the police department hopes to make the Open House bigger and better with every passing year. We'll save you a seat!

Community Day

It's already June and it's time for the annual "if you have a convertible please contact me" notice. Community Day is right around the corner and the cars are needed for the parade. In addition to that, any organization wanting to be in the parade, please contact me via email. Once again, the menu will feature ribs, chicken, wings, and corn on the cob.

Safety First

With the summer months comes the hazard of outdoor injury. Grills should be placed away from structures so as not to endanger them. NEVER use gasoline to start a charcoal grill, use an approved starter fluid or paper. Propane grills need to be assembled correctly and the connection of the tank should be checked. A simple soap and water solution will let you know if you have any leaks. A fire extinguisher near the grill doesn't mean you're a bad cook, it means you're a smart one. If you have a situation with your grill, do not hesitate in calling 911, we will not be annoyed, that's what we are here for. Trust me, we would rather handle a small situation in order to prevent a major one any day.

Proper storage of gasoline for mowers is also important. DO NOT store a gas can in the basement, the hot water tank pilot light will ignite the fumes from the can. If you are storing your gas can in a garage, I strongly recommend a safety can, they do cost a little more, but keep in mind the cost of building materials is also pricey. If at all possible, store gas outside, away from your structure.

Speaking of email, when you email me please put ENL (Edgewood Newsletter) in the subject line, this way I will not delete it. I have been a millionaire several times this week, plus unless you are on my contact list your email goes straight to the spam folder.

Citizen, Police Officers and Firefighter honored for life saving efforts Officer Michael Crow and Cynthia Boles show off the plaques they received from the P.U.L.S.E. program.

During the May 18 Edgewood Borough Council meeting, Cynthia Boles, Edgewood Police Sergeant Susan Kaskie, Officer Michael Crow and Edgewood Firefighter Steve Halle were honored by St. Margaret Hospital's P.U.L.S.E. (Pittsburgh United for Life Saving Emergencies) program, Mayor Jean Davin and the council for their efforts to save a man who suffered a heart attack on Washington Street in August 2008.

Cynthia Boles was headed to a little league picnic when she noticed a man who was unconscious on the sidewalk. "It was one of those chance happenings," Cynthia said. "I was going down the road, I looked over and saw that the gentleman needed help. I realized he needed CPR, so that's exactly what I did. I just happened to be in the right place at the right time for him."

After another citizen called 911, Officer Crow and Sergeant Kaskie arrived on the scene, deployed their AED (Automated External Defibrillator) and continued CPR along with Firefighter Steve Halle.
