FEBRUARY 2010

Mel Douglass Scholarships Reward Seniors

Are you a high school senior with an outstanding record of community service? Then you have the opportunity to earn a scholarship from the Mel Douglass Fund. These scholarships honor the memory of Mel Douglass, who provided exceptional leadership and volunteer service to numerous Edgewood organizations. Last year, six high school seniors from Edgewood earned scholarships for their community service achievements. The scholarships are available again this year to graduating high school seniors, living in Edgewood, who are planning to pursue a degree.

The 2010 Mel Douglass Scholarships will be presented at the annual Edgewood Foundation Brunch in May that is held for the borough's graduating seniors. The primary scholarship is $4,000, paid in $1,000 installments for each year of undergraduate school. Honorable mention scholarships of $500 are also available.

Mel Douglass grew up in Edgewood. He graduated from Edgewood High School and from the University of Pittsburgh. Mel married his high school sweetheart, raised two wonderful children in Edgewood, and launched a successful career in business. Before he passed in an airplane accident in 1994, Mel actively volunteered in multiple community service roles in the borough, ranging from volunteer fireman to Little League coach to church deacon. These facts only hint at Mel's true legacy, which is the wide circle of lives he enriched with his larger-than-life personality, unquenchable spirit, and commitment to serving others. A group of his friends started the Mel Douglass Fund to help sustain his legacy via scholarships.

Anne Hazlett won the 2009 Mel Douglass Scholarship. Jenna Gleason, Zachary Good, Christopher Harding, Reese McArdle and Nicholas Williams earned honorable mention scholarships. To apply for a 2010 scholarship, please send the following information by April 10 to Dallas Frey at 193 West Hutchinson Avenue, Edgewood PA 15218 or at freydk@gmail.com:

- Your name, address and telephone number (email address optional).
- Your high school and month you will graduate this year.
- A summary of your community service efforts, including your perspective on why you should be considered for a Mel Douglass Scholarship (please target 200 to 600 words). Your community service does not need to take place in Edgewood.

- The names and telephone numbers of two references who can verify at least some of your community service.
- The college or university you plan to attend.

If you prefer to apply for a scholarship using a paper application, forms are available at the C.C. Mellor Memorial Library. If you have questions or would like information about contributing to the Mel Douglass Fund please contact Dallas Frey at (412) 371-0278 or frey@verizonmail.com.

2010 Budget Update

On December 21, Edgewood Borough Council adopted the 2010 budget with a real estate tax increase of 2 mills, by a 7-0 vote. This set the tax rate for 2010 at 8.661. On January 4, Mayor Davin vetoed the adopted 2010 Edgewood Borough Budget. Edgewood Borough Council and the borough manager began a review of each revenue and expense line item in the budget. After extensive review and discussion, a proposed amended 2010 budget was approved for public review and input. It calls for an increase of 1.5 mills. This will set the proposed tax rate for 2010 at 8.161 mills. The amended proposed budget will be available for public review January 21 at the borough building, C.C. Mellor Memorial Library and online at www.edgewood.pgh.pa.us.

A Public Hearing on the amended proposed budget for 2010 will be held on February 1 at 6:30 p.m. in council chambers.

Borough council along with the borough manager have begun developing a list of action items to be addressed in the 2011 budget.

For council announcements and copies of previous council meeting minutes, please visit our web site at www.edgewood.pgh.pa.us.

Recreation

Here Comes Peter Cottontail

Are you down in the dumps because of all this snow and cold weather? Need something to brighten your mood? Mark your calendars for Saturday, March 27 for Edgewood's Annual Easter Egg Hunt at Koenig Field. Get your little ones ready with baskets or bags to collect eggs filled with goodies. If the weather is nice enough, maybe the Easter Bunny will even show up. Be sure to read the March newsletter for particulars.

Tax Time

The 2009 Edgewood Borough Real Estate Taxes have been turned over to the delinquent tax collector. If you have not paid this tax yet, it will have to be paid to PAMS. The 2010 borough tax will come out in April. There is still no word on the millage.

The 2009 Woodland Hills School Tax is due at penalty unless you have been paying in installments. The third installment is due by February 28. If you missed your second installment, please remember to include the 10% penalty for that installment. If you have any questions, please call my office at (412) 731-0200.

By Maureen Smith, Tax Collector

Just a Reminder

Remember to lock your car doors at all times. Keep your possessions and valuables out of site, or better yet, remove them from your vehicle when you are not using it.

Keep it Clean!

The recent onslaught of winter weather has highlighted the importance of keeping sidewalks free from ice and snow. It is up to you to shovel your sidewalk within 48 hours of a snowfall. Not only is it the right thing to do... it is also a borough ordinance! You could face fines if you fail to comply with the ordinance. Thanks for helping to keep our sidewalks safe for everyone.

Police Report

We are sad to announce that Officer Timothy Quinn resigned from the Edgewood Police Department in December 2009. We thank Tim for all the hard work he did for the borough during his employment. We wish him the best of luck in his future endeavors.

We would like to welcome Brian Markus, Edgewood's newest police officer. Brian was recently hired as a part-time officer and brings some experience with him. Congratulations to Gene Chrise who was recently moved from part-time to full-time police officer. We wish both Brian and Gene happy and healthy careers in our borough.

New Year Brings New Members and Equipment

The Edgewood Volunteer Fire Department ran a total of 240 calls for service in 2009. I am happy to report that of the 240 calls there were no serious structure fires. I like to believe that this is due to the fact that my fire prevention tips are read and followed. This year, we will continue to provide top-notch fire protection service to the borough by attaining more training and certifications for our members. We now have more members with EMT certifications and we also have one member pursuing his paramedic certification. In December, University of Pittsburgh student Charles Pratt joined the department. Charles joined to learn more about the fire service and to obtain his EMT certification. Stop by anytime to pick up an application and join, we would love to have you! High school seniors, remember if you join the EVFD, commit to 5 years of service, and achieve Firefighter 1 certification, you may be eligible for FREE tuition and books at the Community College of Allegheny County through the FIRE-VEST program.

A grant from the Fire Commissioners Office has been secured thanks to Lisa Segedy. The grant will be used to purchase new radios and pagers. The upgraded radios will allow us to communicate with other departments from anywhere in the county.

Thank you to all the residents that purchased luminary. On Christmas Eve, the streets looked wonderful and festive lined with the glowing luminaries.

Memories of Twenty-five Years at the Edgewood Foundation

The Edgewood Foundation has organized many big events that have brought our citizens together for social and philanthropic reasons. In the late 80s, the Edgewood Foundation organized the Edgewood Film Festival. Regional celebrities such as Dwayne Woodruff and Steve Blass chose their favorite films and introduced them at the Regent Square Theater. For several years, an accompanying art exhibition and reception was hosted by Concept Art Gallery.

Ruth Pickering, first woman mayor of Edgewood and long-time member of the foundation, organized the silent auction event held at the Edgewood Club that preceded theater presentations organized, and often acted by, Larry Heller. The Titanic Dinner was such a success that it developed into the highly popular Progressive Dinner, most recently organized by Amy Andrews Hooks and many, many dedicated volunteer neighbors. The semi-annual Wine and Chocolate event was created a few years ago by current member Angel Lehrian. The Limpert Award was created in 1991 to honor retiring president, Bill Limpert. Since then, the foundation has recognized over 15 special community volunteers.

Though many of our social events are the "glue" that keeps us together, funding major projects continues too. Over the 25 year history of the foundation, three major funding initiatives have supported our mission. Our first grant of twenty five thousand dollars matched funds provided by the borough to create the playground at Koenig Field. This was followed several years later by a $15,000 three year grant to the Edgewood Library for their renovation campaign, and most recently the foundation pledged another $15,000 for three years to Pittsburgh Filmmakers to help support the renovation of the Regent Square Theater and to create a family film series.

Of course, all of this generosity of time and money comes from the good citizens of Edgewood who have contributed constantly and consistently to the Edgewood Foundation because they understand the power of a local foundation working on behalf of all. Through the efforts of our members, current and past, and the many, many volunteers who have aided in all the events throughout the years, we have come together to help make Edgewood a community of distinction.
