Get the most out of your Hard To Recycle pick up

If you have electronic waste, batteries, light bulbs or household chemicals that are taking up precious space in your home, make use of Republic Services Hard-To-Recycle and E-Waste pickup services! There is no additional charge for these services.

The best way to schedule a pickup is to call Republic's local phone number, 877-788-9400. Most pickups will be scheduled several days, even weeks, from the time you call. You may be required to put items in a special bag or tag it in a particular way. Be sure to keep your items indoors and only place them in the pickup area within 12 hours of pickup.

Hazardous Waste is different from e-waste, and the pickups are separate. Hazardous Waste includes batteries, light bulbs and chemicals. E-waste refers to any computer, television or electronic appliances. Pickups for these types of items will be separate. Hazardous Waste is typically picked up on Fridays, but you will be sent a kit prior to your pickup, so the pickup will be several days from when you make the call to schedule. E-Waste is picked up on a rotating basis.

For all the details on safely discarding your old electronics, chemicals, batteries and more—read the next column!

Your hazardous waste and e-waste can now be safely collected from each home by calling 877-788-9400.

Look through your home for hazardous items that need discarding—everything from batteries and paint to computers and chemicals—and feel secure knowing Republic Services will handle these special items; protecting both you and the environment!

Residents who call will be asked to describe the items they want collected. They will be asked to use a special kit to collect the items, which will be delivered to them. Each kit includes a 42-gallon clear plastic bag and detailed instructions on how to safely package the items, along with a collection date. These items MUST be kept in a secure location; NOT at the curb, until collection. The only exception is a single item weighing 50 lbs. or more, such as a large TV, which must be placed at the curb.

On the collection day, Republic Services personnel will collect the specially packaged items and recycle them.

Here is a list of items that Republic Services will collect (5 gallons or less)

New DRIVERS

Recently, a young male driver flagged me down in the Get Go gas station parking lot. The young man said that he had a flat tire, and did not have a jack to lift the car. Next to his vehicle was a spare tire, beside the bald, flat tire.

At this point, I checked the trunk of the police car and was able to locate a jack. I handed it to the young man, who then said, "I don't know how to change a tire".

I then figured this was an opportunity to do what no one else has yet done—teach him how to change a tire. Through the course of teaching and conversation, I quickly learned that this person had no knowledge about a vehicle. Where some might feel sorry for him, this troubled me. How many young drivers are operating vehicle's that have ZERO knowledge of the safety aspects concerning their vehicle?

When young drivers take their drivers test, they learn about the rules of the road. It is apparent that unless someone takes the time to teach them about their vehicle, they are potentially driving a weapon.

Here is a very short list of things every driver should have knowledge of:

- How to change a tire
- When tires need to be replaced
- Vehicle inspection/emissions. The purpose, as well as when it needs to be done.
- Registration. The purpose, as well as when it needs to be done.
- Seatbelt laws.
- What to do in case of an accident.

The above list is a very short list, and could really take up the entire newsletter. The take away is, being educated can save your life, or your child's. Just simply walking around your car and realizing your tires need to be replaced, could save your life! Please remember the importance of getting your vehicle inspected. A mechanic will let you know if you need brakes, you have an issue with your steering, suspension, etc. Having your vehicle checked annually will make everyone's life safer!

Kalmeren Veterinary Acupuncture

Dr. Michelle Elgersma, DVA CVA

“K”almeren” is the Dutch word for calming, which Dr. Michelle Elgersma chose for her business because it seemed so appropriate for the work she does. Dr. Michelle is a veterinarian with over 20 years of experience helping to heal large and small animals (meaning horses, cows, sheep, goats as well as dogs and cats). When Dr. Michelle moved from New Jersey to Pittsburgh, she changed the direction of her animal care to a more Eastern, holistic approach, which she found to be “life-changing” during her studies.

Dr. Michelle worked as a typical veterinarian for many years before taking an acupuncture course almost on a whim. Through the course of the study, she found it to be a life-changing “a-ha” moment that led her completely change the modality of her work. Many people consider doing acupuncture for themselves for a variety of reasons, but are unaware of the benefits it can have for their animals, particularly older animals with troubles with arthritis or glaucoma. Dr. Michelle takes a more Eastern, holistic approach to wellness by attempting to treat the overall wellness of the animal, and not just the symptoms at hand. Of course, if there is a problem that needs antibiotics or western medicine, Dr. Michelle works closely with traditional vets and recommends regular upkeep for the health of your pets.

She did once treat a particular dog for glaucoma, just one day prior to the animal having its eye surgically removed. Her treatment was so successful, the dog was able to keep its eye, and the surgery was cancelled. That is a particularly successful case, but by using holistic treatments like acupuncture, just like humans, animals can see a great deal of benefit in their health. Wellness can be more than simply being free of diseases—it can also mean preventing problems and feeling comfortable and happy in one’s body. Providing health treatment to your pet can mean a longer, happier life with your family member.

Dr. Michelle typically makes house calls, but also works out of the East End Veterinary Center in Shadyside. She also sees clients all over the city of Pittsburgh, not just our neighborhood. New clients can call, email or reach out through the form on her website. (Please note: if your pet is having an emergency, take it immediately to a veterinary office or animal emergency care facility.) Veterinary acupuncture can be a useful tool for older animals with pain or movement issues, but it can also assist a wide variety of conditions like diabetes or renal diseases, which are common problems for cats. Dr. Michelle is well versed in working with a wide variety of animals, so if you’re not sure she can treat your pet, you can always inquire.

Dr. Michelle is a five-year resident of Edgewood, and enjoys the walkability, friendliness and, of course, the urban canopy of the neighborhood. She hopes that our community can continue to build a local network for environmental and health progress to help all our neighbors to be as healthy and happy as possible. We’re lucky to have her unique perspective and professional practice at our fingertips in Edgewood. Good health is great for everyone, human and animal alike.

Edgewood Borough Named 2019 Banner Community Honoree

Edgewood Borough was again named a Banner Community by the Allegheny League of Municipalities. The designation recognizes communities that show a commitment to professional development, prudent fiscal management, transparency, accountability, and proactive communications to engage community stakeholders. A total of 40 Allegheny County municipalities received the Banner Community designation for multiple years. This year marked the program’s seventh year.

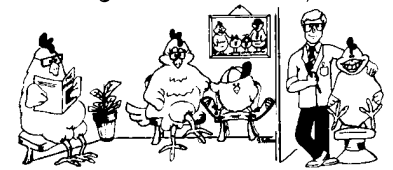

Edgewood Borough Council President Patricia Schaefer commented that “Borough Council and staff are dedicated to providing high quality services to our residents while being transparent in our governance of the borough. This designation reflects council’s commitment to our residents.”

A Banner Community is evaluated across a multitude of performance factors including intergovernmental cooperation, pension and financial health, professional development, planning and emergency preparedness, and community outreach.

From Nine Mile Run Watershed Association—How Can I Combat Stormwater Problems?

Learn About Laterals!

Sewer laterals are the pipes that connect your house to the main sewer line. It is important for them to be in good condition for 2 basic reasons:

1. To keep sewage in so that it can be safely transported to ALCOSAN, our regional sewer treatment plant. Although there are some perks of a leaky sewer lateral (fertilizer), it generally is not considered good. One sign that your lateral might not be in great condition is spots of lush green vegetation in your yard.
2. To keep stormwater and groundwater out. I&I (Inflow & Infiltration) is the lingo in the stormwater/sewer world. I&I is a large part of why our sewers are overwhelmed in rain events. Infiltration is when rain and groundwater enters cracked sewer pipes, including laterals. Inflow is when stormwater and groundwater enter through downspouts and catch basins. During wet weather, I&I can add as much as 3,000 gallons of stormwater per person per day to the sewer system. This is quite the burden on an already overwhelmed system.

So how can you help? Keeping your lateral in good condition is key. In Edgewood, homeowners are responsible for their lateral from the house to the sewer main. Sewer laterals have a life span of about 50 years so it's a good idea to have yours checked by a licensed plumber. Always make sure any repairs are permitted and performed by a plumber licensed by the Allegheny Health Department Plumbing Program.

* Not standard on all properties.

Make the 2nd Count: A Message from Edgewood Borough Council

Guns, gun ownership, gun violence, and the Second Amendment are part of our daily political and societal dialogue. Elected officials swear to uphold the Constitution of the United States and have a duty to protect the safety and welfare of their communities and those who live and work in them. In consultation with our Police Department, Edgewood Council wanted to act in a way that would meet the responsibilities of good governance, uphold the rights of citizens and the rights of those working to ensure the safety and welfare of residents living within our community borders.

At a recent community safety meeting, Edgewood Borough Police Chief Robert Payne reported that one of the major facets in combatting gun violence is getting illegal weapons off the street. The ability to track where weapons come from helps law enforcement identify areas and trends in illegal gun procurement. Police can have a greater impact on gun violence when they are able to disrupt the flow of illegal (and often stolen) weapons into the hands of criminals.

While ordinances may fine gun owners for not reporting their gun stolen or lost, that is after the fact. The best ways to help law enforcement, our families, and our community is to promote responsible gun ownership and the importance of reporting lost or stolen guns in real time.

With all of this in mind, Edgewood Borough Council and Police Department are kicking off the “Make the 2nd Count” Campaign. On the Second day of every month, we’re asking gun owners to perform the following safety checks:

- Verify the location of their gun(s);
- Confirm it is in a locked and secured case;
- See that it is unloaded;
- Check that the ammunition is stored separately in a locked and secured place;
- Know the keys for both the gun and ammunition are secured and out of reach of children.
- And, if any gun is missing that a report is filed with the Edgewood Police.

At the least, checking every month provides a time frame for owners and law enforcement of the theft/loss. It may save the life of a family member or neighbor—more people are accidentally shot by someone “just looking” at a family owned gun, or struggling with emotional issues. This also helps law enforcement track trends in types of theft and areas targeted in our community. Reporting a gun lost or stolen protects owners should their weapon be used in a crime and gives weight to the charges brought when a felon is found with a stolen weapon.

Gun ownership is a Right with responsibilities. Be a part of protecting our community. On the Second of every month, go through the check list. Keep your guns secured. NEVER LEAVE YOUR GUN IN YOUR CAR. And report any gun lost or stolen to Edgewood police as soon as it is discovered missing.

Join the ESO for a powerful finale concert

The ESO will finish up their season with a concert filled with some classical show-stoppers!

Saturday, May 11 at 7:30 p.m.
Agnes and Joseph Katz Performing Arts Center
Jewish Community Center of Greater Pittsburgh

Having just performed Beethoven's Violin Concerto in March, the ESO will take on Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 5 in May. One of the most famous piano concertos in the repertoire, this work is commonly known as the "Emperor Concerto" and has bold melodies, a feel of grandeur and a heroic spirit. Schumann's beautiful Third Symphony, also known as the "Rhenish Symphony", will also be featured in this concert. This grand work pays tribute to the Rhine River, which played a big role in Schumann's life. The concert finishes with Tchaikovsky's Eugene Onegin Waltz, a familiar and bright dance that will be sure to start the summer with a positive feel.

Speaking of summer, make a plan to spend Father's Day with the ESO at Bach Beethoven and Brunch in Mellon Park! Bring a blanket and some lawn chairs, grab your friends and family, and enjoy brunch and some popular classical tunes out of doors on Sunday, June 16 at 10:30 am!

Visit www.edgewoodsymphony.org for more information!

Edgewood Symphony

Spend Father's Day with the Edgewood Symphony at Bach, Beethoven and Brunch!

Pack a picnic blanket, make yourself a nice brunch (or plan to buy food on-site) and head over to Mellon Park at 10:30 am on Sunday, June 16 (Father's Day!) for Bach, Beethoven and Brunch. The ESO will be performing some fun classical favorites, featuring some very special soloists, at this annual summer event. More information on the Bach, Beethoven and Brunch concert series can be found at www.wqed.org/fm/brunch.

The ESO is looking to fill some board positions for the 2019-2020 season and would love to include some of our Edgewood neighbors on this working board. Current areas of need are operations, publicity, fund development and more. Interested individuals should send a resume and brief statement of interest to Natalie at natalie@edgewoodsymphony.org.

Make sure to watch for updates on the ESO's 2019-2020 concert season! World premieres, exciting soloists and Beethoven's Pastoral Symphony (number six towards the ESO's goal of playing all ten of Beethoven's symphonies in sequence) will be featured throughout the year.

Visit www.edgewoodsymphony.org for more information and updates.

During the month of April the Laurel Highlands Council, Boy Scouts of America conducted its annual Scouting for Food program. Scouting for Food serves food banks throughout Allegheny, Beaver, Bedford, Blair, Cambria, Greene, Indiana, Somerset and Washington counties. Scouting for Food is targeted primarily at collecting canned foods, particularly canned products having a high nutritional value. It's with a heavy heart that Jessica Kaushansky is saying goodbye to the Borough of Edgewood as Office & Recreation Assistant. She and her family are moving to the Allison Park area in June.

From Jessica: I have had such an amazing decade in Edgewood, and I am grateful for the time I was able to spend here. There is such love and vibrancy in this neighborhood—it is certainly a welcoming and happy place to live. I will remember these years fondly and with great love in my heart. Thank you to everyone who makes this community such a wonderful place to live.

The bills for the 2019 Edgewood Borough Real Estate Taxes were mailed on April 1st and are now due at face value until July 31. The discount period expires May 31. When you pay your taxes, please make sure you are paying the correct amount, that your written amount matches your numeric amount, and that you have signed and dated your check! You could be charged into the penalty period if your check is returned for errors or missing information and it is not returned to me by July 31.

The 2019 Woodland Hills School Tax should be mailed out July 1st and it will come from Jordan Tax Service because I am stepping back from my position as tax collector on June 30th. All changes will be noted on the tax bill and, for the Borough, on the website.

Thank you for all of the kindness you have shown me over the last 21 years! I have enjoyed my job immensely and had no plans on retiring but sometimes life has a way of letting you know.
